Upon termination, you must destroy all copies of the software product.

This Software License Agreement (the "Agreement") is made as of _____ (the "Effective Date"), by and between SilverMark, Inc., a North Carolina _____ corporation, with a principal place of business at 5511 Capital Center Drive, Raleigh, NC 27606_ ("SilverMark"), and _____

The software ("Software" which specifically means the Smalltalk Test Mentor™, and all whole or partial copies of it, including portions merged into other programs) and documentation (together, the "Materials") are furnished to the individual or legal entity ordering the Materials ("Licensee") subject to these terms and conditions. This is the entire agreement ("Agreement", which specifically means the terms and conditions governing the use of the Materials) between the parties with respect to the materials and all other terms are rejected.

This Agreement may only be modified in writing by the Licensing Manager of SilverMark.

PROPRIETARY PROTECTION AND RESTRICTIONS

The Materials are owned by SilverMark, and are copyrighted and licensed, not sold. The Materials are protected under United States intellectual property laws and applicable international laws and treaties. The Licensee may not remove or alter ownership and copyright notices embedded in or on the Materials. No title to any intellectual property in the Materials is assigned under this Agreement. The Licensee does receive title to the media on which the Materials are delivered.

SilverMark grants Licensee a nonexclusive license ("License", specifically meaning permission under the terms and conditions of this Agreement) for the Software. If SilverMark grants Licensee multiple Licenses for the Materials, the terms of this Agreement apply to each License.

LICENSE GRANT

The Licensee is granted the right to provide each copy of purchased Software to a designated, single person ("Designate") for the sole purpose of using the Software on behalf of the Licensee under these terms and conditions. If Software are provided to a Designate, this Agreement must be provided with it. During the time Software are provided to a Designate, the Licensee retains all obligations but waives any rights to use the Software and the Designate is bound by the terms of this Agreement.

In addition to the rights provided under United States copyright law and except as required by local law and treaties, Licensee or Designate, is granted the following rights:

- For each licensed copy, Licensee or Designate may use the Software on only one machine at any one time. Licensee agrees to ensure that anyone who uses the Software (accessed either locally or remotely) does so only for authorized use and complies with the terms of this Agreement.
- The Licensee or Designate may copy the Software for backup consistent with current industry practices.
- The Licensee may not include any parts of the Materials in a deployment system. A "Deployment System" means any end-user software application. The copyright notice from the Materials and any other legend of ownership on each Deployment System copy or partial copy must be included with each Deployment System.
- The Licensee may transfer all rights and obligations to another individual or entity, provided that the transferring Licensee permanently ceases use of the Materials and destroys all copies, backups and Deployment Systems that have any parts of the Software embedded within them. To transfer such rights and obligations, Licensee must transfer a copy of this Agreement, and at least one complete, unaltered copy of the Software to the other party. The License is then terminated. This transfer right does not authorize The Licensee to act as a distributor.

CHARGES, PAYMENT AND TAXES

Payment must be made to the party (either SilverMark or its reseller) from whom the Licensee acquired the Materials. If the Program was acquired from SilverMark, the Licensee agrees to pay SilverMark the fees listed in the Attachments. If any authority imposes a duty, tax, levy or fee (excluding those based on SilverMark's net income) on the Materials supplied by SilverMark under this Agreement, the Licensee agrees to pay that amount as SilverMark specifies.

The Licensee agrees to notify SilverMark or its reseller and pay any applicable charges if the number of users is increased.

UPDATES AND SUPPORT

This license Agreement does not grant the Licensee rights to any improvements, modifications, enhancements, or updates to the Materials. Such updates may be purchased separately from SilverMark as Premium Support, when available. Telephone support and training, if available, shall be provided at SilverMark's standard rates, terms, and conditions then in effect.
